REBIC was founded with the purpose of bringing together professionals of the real estate industry on a credible and collaborative platform. As we enter a new term, I warmly welcome professionals from across the sector — including developers, agents, architects, builders, contractors, and engineers — to join REBIC and become part of this growing community.

The REBIC year-end concluding event was graciously held at Mövenpick Hotel – Al Bustan, where members gathered for an elegant dinner buffet in an atmosphere of unity and celebration. The event witnessed the enthusiastic participation of REBIC members, many of whom were accompanied by their families, adding warmth and a sense of community to the evening. Throughout the gathering, members actively engaged with one another, fostering meaningful dialogue and exchanging perspectives on the forthcoming term, its strategic direction, and the collective commitment required to fully utilize REBIC’s potential.

As part of the ceremony, appreciation shields were presented to the CEC members in recognition of their dedication, contributions, and continued support during the concluding term. The evening reflected not only a celebration of achievements but also a shared optimism for the future. The images presented on these pages offer a glimpse into the spirit of the occasion; however, they cannot fully capture the depth of interaction, enthusiasm, and positive energy that characterized the event. With renewed resolve and anticipation, members now look forward to the upcoming leadership and the next term of REBIC, committed to further strengthening the platform and its vision.

CONCLUDING NOTE FROM GENERAL SECRETARY

As the REBIC term comes to its conclusion, it has been a privilege to serve as General Secretary during this period. I extend my sincere appreciation to all members for their continued support, cooperation, and commitment throughout the term.

During this tenure, REBIC successfully organized and concluded several professional engagements and events, each reflecting strong participation and collective effort. The consistent involvement of members has been instrumental in advancing our shared objectives and strengthening the platform.

I encourage all stakeholders of the real estate industry — including professionals, architects, builders, contractors, and engineers — to actively engage with REBIC and contribute towards its ongoing mission. Through collaboration and responsible participation, we can further enhance the credibility, professionalism, and positive image of the real estate sector in Pakistan.
